I added a few very minor comments. There was only one suggested line edit. It's attached to a bubble comment. That bubble (and my few other bubbles) are identified in yellow highlight so they'll be easy to find. Thanks.

Tod and Simma,

Here's what we have so far following our 12/02 call with the consulting parties. We'll continue to work on this but would appreciate any preliminary thoughts you can share.

Thanks,

Matt
